

Code of Ethics.

At Garces Fruit, we strive every day to develop our business ethically and with the utmost integrity. Compliance with laws and institutional frameworks have been key to the transparency of our operations in Chile and all other parts of the world where we do business. We invite you to read our code of ethics.

Anonymous complaints.

Garces Fruit has contracted an external alert service to receive complaints about irregularities within the Company, or any other type of situation that is not in keeping with a fair ethical and workplace climate. Such complaints can be filed anonymously, confidentially and securely through the company “Resguarda”, which guarantees full independence and objectivity. Once received, your complaint will be sent to an internal committee to analyze the report and take measures appropriate for each case.
